Join In The Fun And Support Education

Creative teams use everyday objects and engage the audience to make on-the-spot designs for a school of the future.

ABOUT THE DESIGN CHALLENGE

fundraiser also includes a cocktail reception and silent auction, while attendees experience project-based learning, a creative approach to hands-on learning and teamwork. During the Design Challenge, teams of business leaders, educators, elected officials, celebrities, athletes, and others build three-dimensional answers to an education-related question. Each team works with an identical box of materials and a limited amount of time. The competition between teams requires speed, ingenuity, and audience participation. It's fun! It's creative!
